

Adrian's Greatest Wish for a Shopping Spree

Sponsored by the Chad Blum Memorial Golf Tournament

September 30, 2005

Sixteen-year-old Adrian from Temple Hills, MD has always wanted to walk into a mall and get anything and everything he wanted. So when he met with volunteers from the Make-A-Wish Foundation, it was an easy decision to go on a shopping spree for his greatest wish. He chose to go to Annapolis mall with his family and in addition, wanted to invite a special guest. Adrian's mentor and good family friend lives in Chicago, IL. So as a special addition to his wish, the Foundation flew Adrian's mentor to Maryland to join Adrian on his wish.

Adrian, his family, and mentor were picked up early one morning in a limousine and taken to Annapolis Mall. Adrian spent the whole day picking out everything his heart desired, including a computer, clothes, and shoes. At the end of the day, he was thrilled to have gone on his first shopping spree and to have shared it with so many special people in his life.
